So, who was Barbarossa? - certainly not a baker (who has cashed in on this illustrious name), but a powerful emperor of the Middle Ages. One of our claims to fame!

Discover more interesting aspects of Kaiserslautern: a guided tour of the Count Palatinate Hall (with the subterranean passages) and/or walk through the downtown highlights major personages, buildings and events in Kaiserslautern's multifaceted history.

The tour guides will enjoy sharing their expertise with you.

Important notice!

Please note that all tours should be booked no later than one week prior to the desired date. Generally, tours are possible every day of the week, including German public holidays. We try to arrange tours according to your request. For various reasons, however, some dates might not be possible.

On Sundays and German public holidays there is a surcharge of 10.00 EUR. The listed prices include the current VAT of 19 %.

If you need a bus for a city tour, we'll be glad to assist you. The price for the bus rental depends on the time, location, and group size.

The maximum number per tour is limited so that all participants can enjoy the tour to the fullest. For groups larger than the maximum number of participants, we will arrange for a second tour guide.

Please inform us three days in advance about changes as well as cancellations. Cancellations received later than three days prior to the tour will be charged the full amount. Your tour guide will wait for a maximum of 30 minutes past the scheduled appointment.

To book a guided tour, see our contact details below. We look forward to hearing from you.
