So, who was Barbarossa? - certainly not a baker (who has cashed in on this illustrious name), but a powerful emperor of the Middle Ages. One of our claims to fame!

Discover more interesting aspects of Kaiserslautern: a guided tour of the Count Palatinate Hall (with the subterranean passages) and/or walk through the downtown highlights major personages, buildings and events in Kaiserslautern's multifaceted history.

The tour guides will enjoy sharing their expertise with you.

The indicated prices include value added tax and are valid until 31st December, 2020. All dates are published under reserve.

Important notice for groups!

The Tourist Information Kaiserslautern simply holds the position of an agent.

Registration for a guided tour should be made in writing by e-mail, letter or fax. You can also use our contact form at www.kaiserslautern.de.

Individual guided tours can be arranged. The price depends on the time and size of the group.

Group surcharge on Sundays and German public holidays: 10.00 EUR.

If you need a bus for a city tour, we'll be glad to assist you. The price for the bus rental depends on the time, location, and group size.

Should changes be necessary, the client will be informed immediately.

Cancellations are free of charge up to 3 days in advance and must be in writing. In case of a later cancellation, all costs incurred will be charged in full.

The tour guides will wait a maximum of 30 minutes at the agreed meeting point. If the group is late, the time of the tour is reduced accordingly. There is no right to an extension of the tour or reduction of the price.

If the program is shortened at the request of the group, the price to be paid remains unchanged.

Timely registration is required for all guided tours.
We look forward to hearing from you.
